WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

A Historical Defense of the Resurrection

Christians maintain that Jesus bodily rose from the dead. This belief arises from Scripture (e.g., Matt 28:6; Mark 16:6; Luke 24:6; John 20:15). It also arises from historical inquiry. Consider these four historical facts.

First, Jesus Christ died by crucifixion. The crucifixion was scandalous in the ancient world (see 1 Cor 1:23). No one would choose to establish a new movement based upon a Roman cross. Yet, that is exactly what early Christians did. They preached the cross because Jesus was crucified. Second, early Christians stated that women first spoke of Jesus’ empty tomb. This posed a problem because a woman’s testimony was not highly regarded in the ancient world. Still, it is women, not men, who first observed the empty tomb. Why would early Christians tell their story in this socially-unacceptable way? Because that is what happened. Third, early Christians believed that Christ had risen from the dead. They spoke constantly about Jesus’ resurrection, which indicates, at minimum, that they believed that he had. Fourth, early Christians died for what they believed. Take, for example, the apostle Peter. Jerome, an ancient historian, writes, “At Nero’s hands, Peter received the crown of martyrdom being nailed to the cross.” If Peter knew Jesus’ resurrection was a lie, he would not have been crucified for it. People don’t die for beliefs they know are lies. Yet, Peter did die for his belief. Why? Because Peter saw the risen Lord.

Christianity is not poppycock. It’s the truth. Jesus really did rise from the dead. Both the Bible and history show that. Let the reader understand.
