WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

Unexplainable Experiences

In the “Spiritual Gifts” Sunday school class, we’ve explored different spiritual gifts. One gift is prophecy. I do not believe that prophecy—telling someone what God says, thinks, or will do in the future independent of Scripture—continues in the church age as it did during apostolic times. Prophets and apostles existed in the NT era but not today.

Even with that belief, though, I have had several odd and unexplainable experiences occur to me that seem to border on the prophetic. In these instances, abrupt and intruding thoughts enter my mind that leave a profound impression. They come out of nowhere. It’s like getting struck with a mental lightning bolt. These impressions result in some significant change in my life.

How do we explain such experiences? Are they from God? Did God insert these impressions into my mind? I don’t have answers to these questions, and I don’t feel like I have to know the answer. I cling to what 1 Cor 13:12 says, “Now we see in a mirror dimly.” We walk by faith, not by sight. Faith entails not having all the answers. Theology is helpful and necessary, but so is a genuine, “I don’t know.” When we have experiences we can’t explain, resting in the mystery of God’s ways is good place to land (Isa 55:8–9).

Yard Work Projects HAVE BEGUN! If you would like our group to rake your yard, please fill out the Yard Work Request form in the bulletin and place it in the basket at the Welcome Center or call the church with your request, 224-6730. If you have an extra dump ticket to donate, please give them to Jenn Oedekoven.

Thank you to everyone who helped prepare and serve the Community Banquet last week. Approximately 319 ‘to go’ meals were served in an hour with a Cross Centered Missions gospel message bookmark included to feed not only the body but the soul as well! We were a few people short and those that were able to help did extra work to make it a success! Please pray for those members of our community that were served our meal and find themselves in need. Save the date for next year: April 20, 2023!
