Note the sections in the Book that we will examine along with daily Bible reading:

1. The Beatitudes
2. Progress of Faith
3. Fruit of the Spirit
4. The Triumph of Love

Just as we have in the past few years, we will meet on Tuesday mornings, from 6 to 7 a.m. You can join us in person, with great coffee at Brent Dowling's, or wherever you are at via Zoom online. This will be a great study whether you are a new believer or a seasoned saint. If you are interested, contact John Strohman at 605-280-2780, and we will make sure you have the materials you need. God bless and may we grow in the grace of our Lord together!

WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

In & Through

Question-asking is critical for spiritual growth. If you want to grow, ask yourself deep, probing spiritual questions. If you want others to grow, ask them those same questions. Proverbs 20:5 reads, “The purpose in a man’s heart is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out.” And how do we bring out heart issues? By asking questions. Here are two questions that might help you: what is God doing in you, and what is God doing through you?

The first question—what God is doing in you—concerns His work in our hearts, and this is the first question for a reason. Why? Because that’s the initial place God wants to begin working—on us, in our attitudes, thoughts, and intentions. Before we ever seek to offer God something, we must offer him our heart, ourselves (1 Sam 15:22). Now God’s work doesn’t just stop with me, myself, and I. On the contrary, by working in me, God wants to work through me. That is, He wants me to share the work He wrought in me with all of those around me (Eph 2:10). Once we receive the grace of God, God calls us to share that grace, and that is God working through us.

Brothers and sisters, what is God doing in you, and what is God doing through you? Put these questions in your back pocket and ask them often—for yourself and for others. Don’t leave home without them! May the whole world know us as those preposition-loving people who could never get over what God had done in us and through us.

Pastor Chance

Why do you serve in the nursery?

- I use the nursery for my children. I thought I should take a turn helping others out too.
- My wife asked me to help her in the nursery.
- We wanted to be in the nursery with our grandchildren.
- I wanted to serve, and it is an easy way to serve in the church.
- I found it is a way to get to know others, especially new families.
- I helped in the nursery at another church and continued with that when attending CBC.
- It's relaxing and able to visit with the other volunteers.
- I like the food that is served (play food).

If you have questions about volunteering or are ready to volunteer please contact Roxanne Rice.

Walking an hour each way to school,

Kimheang passed by a house church. She had never heard the Good News of Jesus Christ until age 14 when the pastor's wife invited her to a Christmas program. Kimheang was captivated by the worship music and message about Jesus. Then, she and the other children there each received a gift – an Operation Christmas Child shoebox. It was the first gift that Kimheang had ever received. Come hear how receiving this gift drew her to The Greatest Gift, Jesus Christ.
