WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“MEMBER SPOTLIGHT”

A Transparent Community

God exhorts us, saying, “Bear one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2). To “bear” a burden is to help a brother or sister with some difficulty, which requires us to know how others are doing. Often, you cannot assess how others are doing unless they tell you how they’re doing. Galatians 6:2 underscores the importance of transparency within the Christian community.

Within our church, the ethos of openness and vulnerability should permeate our culture at CBC. Too infrequently, we keep our Christian journeys shrouded in privacy. We withhold sharing the gospel because faith is “a personal matter.” We refrain from discussing our struggles since we don’t want others “knowing our business.” We avoid discussing about our walk with Christ because it makes us “uncomfortable.” While privacy has its place, prioritizing God’s glory above privacy is paramount. Sometimes, honoring the Lord necessitates revealing private matters, enabling others to support us in our trials. This means that we should talk to other Christians about who we really are—warts and all!

A transparent community offers freedom. In such a context, we can shed our masks, communicating our imperfections to fellow imperfect people. We’re all sinners, and we should never pretend that we’re perfect. How exhausting that is! We need each other. By sharing our shortcomings, transgressions, and missteps, we allow others to help us (1 John 5:16).
