Why pack an Operation Christmas Child Shoebox? Because one gift can change a life for eternity! Each shoebox is an opportunity for a child around the world to hear about God's Love. Praise God for the Gospel opportunities provided through CBC and the Pierre area in 2023. CBC packed 499 shoebox gifts and the Drop off location received 1054 boxes. ( In 2022 just over a hundred boxes were packed at CBC and 492 received at the Drop off location). We will continue to collect items year round starting with hygiene items – toothbrushes, washcloths, combs etc. Our goal is 700 hygiene packs to have available for packing parties and individual packers. Stuffed animals are needed. Valentine's Day Sales provide opportunities to find these. We want to provide one for every box. Stop by the table in the foyer for more information and place donated items in the collection bin.

WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“MEMBER SPOTLIGHT”

A Multitude of Counselors

Many of the challenges confronting Christians are unprecedented in Christian history. Navigating these hurdles requires applying wisdom gained from other Christians. In Prov 11:14, God encourages us to seek an “abundance of counselors,” seasoned believers with a track record of faithfulness, a deep understanding of what they talk about, and a consistent reliance on Scripture.

Two Christians I consult for insight regarding cultural issues are Rosaria Butterfield and Carl Trueman. As I’ve mentioned from the pulpit, Butterfield, a former tenured Syracuse English professor, underwent a profound conversion from lesbianism to Christ. Her writings are thoroughly biblical, reflecting her role as a pastor’s wife and her fearlessness in proclaiming biblical truth. Trueman, a pastor and college professor, exhibits a sincere love for the local church. His recent book, The Rise and Triumph of the Modern Self, provides an invaluable Protestant perspective on our current cultural moment. Given Butterfield’s and Trueman’s expertise, experience, and love for Christ, their insight stand out amidst lots of noise. It’s critical to realize that not all voices carry the same weight.

I’d strongly encourage you to consider incorporating these two Christians into the voices you respect. Along with their books, they have many videos on YouTube. Their perspectives have the potential to enrich the church for years to come. Additionally, seek other Christians who speak well, build up the local church, and live godly lives. Establish a “multitude of counselors” whom you can regularly turn to for guidance and counsel in navigating the complexity of our world.
