WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

On Nuancing

I really like the word “nuance.” Not only does it roll off the tongue in a pleasant manner (very different than “entrepreneurial”), but the term also encapsulates an important concept. When I use the term, I define it as “a subtle difference in or shade of meaning.”

We should nuance when we speak about complex realities. Take, for example, divorce and remarriage. Thinking and conversing about this issue requires great nuance, provided its sensitivity and complexity. A great number of godly Christians maintain different views on the subject, so that requires us to tread lightly (but tread nonetheless) when thinking about it.

In other situations, though, it is important that we don’t nuance. Take, for example, Christ’s physical resurrection. Our whole faith depends on this event. Paul says 1 Cor 15:14, “And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith is in vain.” When we talk about Jesus’ resurrection, we shouldn’t nuance. Nuancing in this situation by saying, “Well, Jesus might have been resurrected physically,” is a denial of our faith. Never deny the faith. Preach Christ’s resurrection; don’t nuance it.

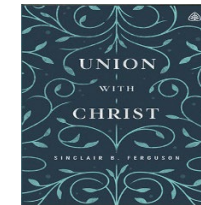

Some people engage in hyper-nuance, so they refrain from making a forceful statement. This group needs boldness (Eph 6:19). Others never nuance, so they consistently present the truth in black and white terms. This group needs their ignorance curbed (1 Tim 1:7). Wisdom requires knowing when to nuance and when to not. May the Lord give us this wisdom.

Titus: We do good works not to earn God’s favor, but as a result of God’s favor.

Led by: Joel Jundt

What does it mean to be "in Christ"? This simple phrase encapsulates the glorious benefits and blessings of the Christian life, and the importance of this expression is underscored by how regularly Paul used it in his inspired writings. But many Christians today suffer from an identity crisis, unaware of this truth and how this new identity can reshape every aspect of their lives. In this teaching series, we will explore the crucial meaning of our union with Christ, revealing that being a Christian is far more wonderful than many of us know.
