WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8) ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

Canary in a Coal Mine

Doctrinal devolution does not happen all at once. Rather, it is a slow process. There can be a certain order to it. When people shift away from a Christian worldview, they tend to first dispose of the idea that the Bible is entirely truthful—biblical inerrancy. From that position of rejecting biblical truth, it’s only a small step to other perverse beliefs like, “Premarital sex can’t be that bad.”

Biblical inerrancy functions like a “canary in a coal mine.” This idiom refers to a certain coal mining practice. Miners used to take caged canaries (small birds) into the coal mines. These birds are highly sensitive to harmful gases, more so than humans. If the canary died, that meant that dangerous gases were present, and so the miners would immediately exit the mine. The canary served as an early warning sign of imminent danger. That’s how biblical inerrancy functions. It’s a canary in the coal mine for Christian theology.

Paul tells Timothy in 1 Tim 4:16 to persist in keeping a close watch on his doctrine. Like Timothy, we too need to keep a close watch on our doctrine—specifically, on what we believe regarding the truthfulness of Scripture. It’s our canary in the coal mine. Keep it safe. Never let go of the conviction of the belief that the Bible is the very Word of God.
