WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

On Jesus’ Silence

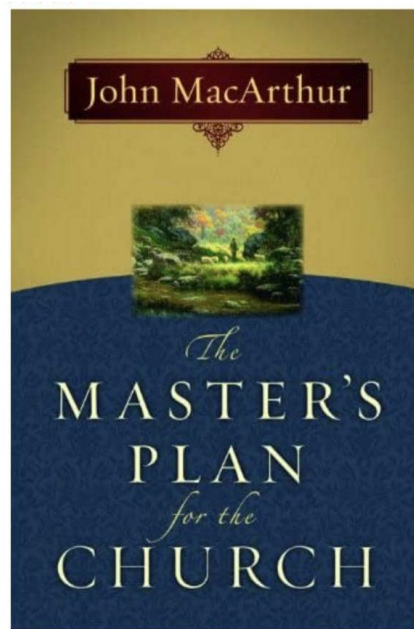

A common objection to a biblical sexual ethic goes something like, “If Jesus disapproved of homosexuality, he would have said so. Because Jesus didn’t preach against it, he thus endorsed homosexual behavior.” Is such an objection cogent? No. In fact, the objection mirrors a toothpick—flimsy and brittle. Here’s why.

Jesus did talk about homosexuality. In Matt 15:19–20, Jesus says that “sexual immorality . . . defiles a person.” The Greek term for “sexual immorality” encompasses various kinds of sexual sins, including but not exclusive to homosexuality. Further, in Matt 19:5–6, Jesus teaches that marriage between one man and one woman provides the suitable context for sexual expression. By consequence, all sexual intimacy outside of this one-man-one-woman covenant is forbidden, including but not exclusive to homosexuality.

Also, if we take this principle of “Jesus supports every position he does not explicitly reject” and apply it broadly, we run into troubling conclusions. Take, for example, the concept of torture. To my knowledge, Jesus never says that torture is wrong. Using the principle that critics of traditional sexual norms use, we would have to conclude that Jesus condones torture. That’s ludicrous, though, and everyone knows that.

Homosexuality is wrong. Jesus says so, along with Moses (Gen 19:24; Lev 20:13), Paul (Rom 1:27; 1 Cor 6:9; 1 Tim 1:10), Jude (Jude 7), and John (Rev 22:15). Don’t fall for the schemes of the devil. Instead, “destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God” (2 Cor 10:5). May God richly bless you!

ANOTHER
TUESDAY
MORNING MENS
STUDY STARTS SOON!

We are getting geared up for a great fall of growing together, (via iron sharpens iron!) Of course the absolute and final authority of all things is the Word of God (The Bible) and we will be studying that.

As a companion we will examine John MacArthur's book, "The Master's Plan For The Church." The book sets out a Biblical roadmap for how churches should function, grow, and minister. All of us will benefit from this book that turns us to scripture and not techniques, politics, or pragmatism.

Starting day for this study will be Tuesday, Sept. 13 at 6 am (via Zoom on-line or coffee ☕ at Brent Dowling's.)

If you might be interested, call:
John Strohman @ 605-280-2780
or
Brent Dowling @ 605-280-6564.

God bless!!!

We hope you will join us for the Missions Conference at CBC September 9-11!

Sign up now – at the welcome center or go to your CBC Church App and click on “sign ups”.

We will hear from a variety of missionaries, including Jamin Eben.

Jamin Eben hails from the Black Hills of South Dakota. He holds a BS in Music from Black Hills State University (2009), a Masters of Divinity from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville Kentucky (2016), and is currently pursuing a Ph.D. from Southern Seminary.

Jamin worked as a Christian broadcaster for nine years in the upper Midwest before coming to Kentucky to pursue his Masters of Divinity in 2012. He served for five years as a pastor in Southern Indiana before joining TTI (Teaching Truth International).

While working as a broadcaster, Jamin was involved in several short-term missions trips and was broken over the theological famine afflicting pastors in the developing world. This newfound passion developed into a close relationship with the mission and staff of TTI, and eventually a full time partnership.

Jamin is married to Kristen and they live in the Louisville KY metro.
