WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“MEMBER SPOTLIGHT”

Lest We Forget

On vacation, I noticed a trend among many churches to craft worship experiences that please or woo as many people as possible—even to the point of entertainment. Also, I’ve heard Christians say things like, “The worship service really didn’t feel worshipful.” Typical reasons for this include: the style of worship music wasn’t quite right (contemporary songs vs. hymns), the pastor’s sermon didn’t meet my needs, the delivery was off, or the pastor left me feeling guilty when I came to be uplifted.

The Holy Bible is clear on God’s desire for worship: “But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him.”(John 4:23). From this verse, the primary purpose of worship is to bring praise, glory, and honor to God. He alone is worthy of our reverence and praise. He is our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer—our worship should acknowledge Him as the great “I am.” Worship should not revolve around self-centered concerns.

Also, we are called to worship God “in spirit and truth.” To worship God “in spirit” is not just “going through the motions.” Rather, worship must come from the heart. Both the Old and New Testament teach, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind” (Deut 6:5 and Matt 22:37). Our spirit should be fully engaged through our heart, soul, and mind as we worship God. “In truth” means we should desire to know and correctly understand God’s word, which gives us true understanding of who we are, who God is, and how we are to interact with our neighbors. Worshipping God means that we fully set our minds on God.

Lest we forget: worship is for God, not for our “experience.” Let’s prepare to worship Him in truth and in spirit!
