WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

Shiny Happy People

Amazon released a documentary on the Duggars (think: TLC’s 19 Kids and Counting). It’s not a positive take on the family or on their approach to Christianity. Specifically, Amazon succeeds at painting a bad picture of the popular Bible teacher Bill Gothard. Those who are interviewed attest that he was abusive, manipulative, controlling, and predatory. The whole vibe I got from watching was that Gothard’s teaching was something of a mix between orthodox Christianity and a cult. Though he taught the Bible, Gothard also taught various forms of legalism. For instance, “modesty” was applied in a way that the Duggar women had to wear clothing that made them look like Pilgrims. Gals couldn’t wear pants, only long skirts that hit them at a certain point on their legs would do. Though much of the documentary I disagreed with and felt it to be unfair, I interpret its main point—the Duggars reliance upon Gothard’s teaching harmed people—as true.

Legalism is a nasty and harmful reality. It exchanges the truth of God for a lie that closely resembles the truth. We must resist legalism—the eradication of Christian freedom by prohibiting what God allows—while also preaching the importance of obedience to God’s Word. We must also resist groupthink. It seems that question-asking and critical thinking were banned in the Duggar household and in Gothard’s ministry. That’s bad. We must ask hard questions and allow others to ask hard questions. Not everyone has to think the same way. If you haven’t seen this documentary, you should watch it. Viewing it may be painful, especially if you’ve found Gothard’s teaching helpful, but I think there’s benefit to growing in our discernment.
