WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“MEMBER SPOTLIGHT”

Faith and Knowledge Are Friends

What is faith? Some take faith and knowledge as opposites, and this is called fideism. Fideism claims that knowledge concerns only provable truths—those in math, science, history, and philosophy—while faith is about truths that can't be proved, like God, the Bible, and salvation. According to fideism, Christians have no intellectual reasons for faith. All faith is blind, and faith has nothing to do with knowledge. With fideism, the mind is an enemy, and only the heart guides us.

Others take faith and knowledge as synonyms, a view called rationalism. Rationalism suggests that we are saved based on what we know. The idea here is that the smarter you are, the godlier you are. Salvation turns into a pursuit of acquiring data. With rationalism, the mind is the savior, whereas the heart is a distraction. Both fideism and rationalism fail. Fideism neglects knowledge, while rationalism idolizes knowledge.

Instead, Scripture teaches we cannot be saved without the knowledge of Christ (Rom 10:17), yet our salvation depends solely upon Christ and not our intellect (Eph 2:8–9). Faith is a form of knowledge, but it isn't mere knowledge. Faith and knowledge differ, but they aren't enemies. They're friends. We have reasons for why we believe Christianity, but our salvation does not rest on our ability to comprehend or explain everything we know by faith.

GriefShare is hosting: Surviving the Holidays
On Nov. 17th from 2:00 – 4:00 in room 200.

At this stand-alone event, grieving people will hear practical suggestions on:

- How to prepare for and deal with emotional ambushes
- What to do about family traditions and yearly events
