

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CBC is planning for a NEW Directory this summer. The Deacons are looking for volunteers to help with registration, callers to schedule pictures for June and July dates, layout of directory pages, and someone to be the point person overseeing the process. If you are interested in helping contact Randy Hofeldt (605.222.2274) or any Deacon.

Yard Work Projects will begin soon! If you would like our group to rake your yard, please fill out the Yard Work Request form in the bulletin and place it in the basket at the Welcome Center or call the church with your request, 224-6730. If you have an extra dump ticket to donate, please give them to Jenn Oedekoven.

Please plan to join us to celebrate the Resurrection of our Savior at a potluck on Easter Sunday, April 17th, after 2nd service. Studies show unchurched friends and family are more likely to attend church on Easter, so please invite them. We always have plenty of food! Last names A-M, please bring a main dish and a salad, N-Z, please bring a main dish and a dessert. If you can attend, please tell, or text Trish Sargent at 220-3572, so we have an idea for set-up.

Showers of Blessings! We would like to welcome to our congregation:

- ◆ Addie Marie, daughter of Joseph & Brittanie Rezac. Please help us welcome her by placing any cards or gifts on the umbrella shower table.

CBC is scheduled to serve the Community Banquet on April 21st at the Southeast Methodist Church. The church hosts a weekly meal for approximately 300 people that is hosted by various groups and individuals from the community. Unfortunately, they are not serving an 'in person' meal at this time; meals are served 'to go' style. A small number of volunteers will be needed to prepare, serve, and help clean up. For those wishing to volunteer, a Sign Up Genius email was sent out. Please check your email or call the office to sign up. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Amy Mesman at 280-9740.

WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

How Many People Will Be Saved?

At the end of time, will God save a lot of people or only a small group?

The passage that seems to address this question is Matt 7:13–14. Jesus states that “many” enter through the gate of destruction, and only a “few” enter through the gate of life. This would seem to indicate that most of mankind, the “many,” will not be saved. Only a “few,” in comparison to the “many,” will be saved. I’m not persuaded that Jesus speaks here of the total amount of people who will be saved and who will not be saved. For example, I don’t believe that Jesus addresses in this passage the eternal outcome of the millions (billions?) of people who die in utero.

There are other passages that indicate that a unnumerable multitude will be saved. Revelation 7:9 reads, “After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages.” That’s a lot of people! Also, Rom 11:26 says, “All Israel will be saved.” I’m not sure exactly what Paul means here, but “All Israel” seems to entail a lot of people. One other passage, Ex 20:5–6, says the Lord’s justice extends to “the third and fourth generation,” but his steadfast love extends to “thousands of those who love” Him. In this passage, the Lord’s love envelopes a larger group of people than His wrath does.

At the end of the day, we do not know how many will be saved. The Bible does not give us a number. The secret things belong to the Lord (Deut 29:29). We know that Jesus is the only way of salvation (Acts 4:12), but only God knows the number of his elect (Luke 18:7). Praise His holy name!
